

VICTORY OF PLAYA GIRON REMEMBERED IN TORONTO.

Toronto, April 16th, 2013. As part of the calendar of the "Month of Solidarity" developed by the Latin American and Caribbean Solidarity Network (LACSN) in this city, yesterday afternoon was commemorated the anniversary of the victory of Playa Giron, the first military defeat of the US imperialism Latin America.

During the event, sponsored by the organization "Toronto Forum on Cuba", the Cuban documentary "66 Hours" was screened, which tells in detail the main aspects of this emotional epic.

The Consul General of Cuba in Toronto, Javier Domokos Ruiz, was the main Speaker of the activity, highlighting the historical significance of this military event that resulted immediately in the declaration of the socialist character of the Cuban Revolution.

At the event, as part of the questions asked by the participants, other issues were addressed such as the Freedom of the Cuban Five, the criminal imperialist blockade against the Island, the U.S. state terrorism against Cuba, among other topics.

In the large audience there were representatives of organizations of solidarity with Cuba, professor and students of the University of Toronto as well as members of the Association of Cuban residents in Toronto "Juan Gualberto Gómez" and officials from the Cuban Consulate General in Toronto.
